Vignesh Radhakrishnan

Accelerator and Partnerships Manager
- Asia region, Toilet Board Coalition

Vignesh is a versatile professional with over 6 years of experience in entrepreneurship and innovation. Transitioning seamlessly from engineering to the entrepreneurship domain, he has made significant contributions to fostering startup ecosystems and sustainable solutions.

During his tenure at Kerala Startup Mission, Vignesh mentored over 200 startups, guiding them from ideation to market launch. His expertise in validating business models and providing strategic guidance has empowered entrepreneurs to achieve measurable success.

In his current role as Accelerator and Partnerships Manager for the Asia Region at the Toilet Board Coalition, Vignesh works at the intersection of technology and sustainability. He is dedicated to supporting entrepreneurs in the WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene) and technology sectors, driving innovation to tackle critical global challenges. A specialist in scouting emerging entrepreneurs and building strategic collaborations, Vignesh plays a pivotal role in creating impactful change in the region.
